

The University of Birmingham, Guild of Students is a charity and the students' union for more than 36,000 students. We represent our members to the University and other organisations on the issues that matter to students most. We also exist to help students develop skills outside of study, have fun, meet people and make sure their time at Birmingham is special.

Digital Communications Coordinator

£ 23,356 per annum, 35.5 hours per week

The Guild is looking to recruit a dynamic digital communications specialist to become a part of the Communications & Marketing department.

Responsible for the delivery of digital communications activities, you will ensure messages are consistent, professional and effective, whilst developing campaigns and activities which engage our members and further our brand.

You will create original and engaging content, whilst working with a range of stakeholders to deliver measureable success, thorough the evaluation and impact of activities.

You will have previous experience of coordinating effective digital campaigns and maximising exposure across a range of digital platforms. Organisation skills, motivation and the ability to work as part of a team are essential for this busy, demanding role.

Closing date for applications: Monday 10th September 2018 at 9am
